

Communication Studies Department Guidelines

The following are guidelines for Communication Studies graduate students:

1. Communication Studies graduate students must earn a grade of B- or better in COM 500, Research and Writing.
2. Each bridge course (listed as both a 400/500 level course) will require that graduate students complete an extra project, as determined by the instructor.
3. Courses will be repeated if a grade of "C-" or below is earned.
4. A graduate Program Director conference is required if a student's cumulative GPA falls below 3.00. A program for improvement will be developed and closely monitored until the student's GPA is 3.00 or above.
