

Help us create new connections between UP and the community

Building Engaged Humanities Curriculum: A Focus Group

Would you be interested in taking UP courses with members of our local neighborhood? UP's Civic Humanities Incubator is designing a new kind of course that will bring together undergraduates and adults from the local community to learn together and we want your input on this and other types of engaged humanities curriculum we're envisioning.

We're seeking 12 students (any year/major) to join us for a focus group to help us get the student perspective as we continue this work.

Wednesday, Oct. 22 • 7:00 – 8:30pm

Free Taco Bar Dinner provided!

RSVP by scanning the QR code below to reserve your spot.

Questions or ADA Accommodations? Email prf@up.edu.

This event has been made possible by the Mellon Foundation. Any views, findings, conclusions, or recommendations expressed in this event do not necessarily represent those of Mellon.