Where Do the Liberal Arts Lead? A UP Alumni Panel

If majoring in Engineering, Nursing, or Education leads you directly to careers in precisely those fields, what is the path for students who major in philosophy, sociology, or biology? These routes may not be as direct, but they are diverse and compelling, as UP alumni experiences show. Join us for a conversation with 5 alumni who will discuss how their liberal arts education prepared them for life after graduation. Part of PRF's new Engaged Humanities Futures course, transforming humanities mindsets and skills into concrete personal and professional development for all majors. All curious faculty, staff, and students welcome!

Monday, Apr. 7 • 6:15 – 7:30pm • DB 133
Snacks, Sweet Treats & Cold Drinks

Panelists include:

Hales Skelton (Philosophy 2013; OHSU) • Autumn Worthy (Biology 2014; Nike) • Autumn Fluetsch (Communications 2020; North Star Civic Foundation) • Grace Fortson (Political Science 2022; Our Children Oregon) • Riley Eyring (English 2022; freelance videographer)
