Thursday, 4/29 • 7:00 pm – 8:15 pm PDT

JOIN THE ZOOM EVENT HERE: <https://uportland.zoom.us/j/95574502352>

JOIN US for a showcase of the program's 2020-21 work. Students and faculty fellows will unveil their projects and be on hand to guide attendees through a variety of lenses for thinking about our theme, Displacement and Justice. Browse through a series of virtual rooms where you'll encounter and engage with a range of projects:

LISTEN to a podcast that explores displacement through the experience of first-generation students,

INTERACT with a map that uses Portland African American literature to tell local stories of displacement,

EXPERIENCE a choir performance that thinks through displacement with music.

Throughout the event attendees will have the opportunity to ask questions and exchange ideas about the projects and the theme. We invite anyone interested in learning about displacement in its local contexts and beyond to join as we highlight this exciting group of projects that use innovative, accessible forms to expand our ideas of what research can look like.
